Silver Falls:

I am a single mother, who was born and raised in Oregon, with an unbridled passion for nature and drawing. Silver Falls State Park has been a staple for my daughter and I for the past 14 years, making it near and dear to my heart. Keeping that passion in mind, I created this coloring book to share my sense of love and wonder for one of my favorite state parks. All the page are hand drawn from pictures taken over the years during our trips. I hope this coloring book fills you with the same awe of nature that originally inspired me.

The Break-Up:

I spent several years alone, waiting for someone to move me. To melt my icy heart and make me feel again. The cliché of “boy meets girl” was boring. I needed fire and gasoline. To feel alive again with that passion, desire and addiction of love. Now I’m walking away from the fire. Burned, charred down to my soul. In love, in pain and alone once more. ...it was worth it. Color the pain away with this 24 page hand drawn coloring book. A perfect way to work through the heartache of a breakup for yourself or your bestie. Just remember, no tears allowed on the coloring pages. Chin up girl, you can get through this!
